

alloutpraise! Band / Artist Agreement

This agreement described below is made between the Christian Family & Children's Center and band / artists playing for the contemporary Christian benefit concert alloutpraise! on July 17th, 18th, or 19th 2014 at Harr Field in Donegal.

By signing below, the band / artist is agreeing to the following:

1. Band / artists agree to these terms as agents for themselves and are not under management, or have made the appropriate arrangements with their management, to be able to play in and meet the obligations of the event.
2. Band / artists and their support group of individuals coming with them confirm they understand this will be a distinctly Christian event, and must agree to all of the conditions of the festival found on the website www.alloutpraise.com and band detail site www.alloutpraise.com/bands. As a part of this event, the artists have reviewed the Center's website at www.champion.org to be aware of the Center's ministry and assuring that their presentation and all music and communication played must be consistent with the Center's ministry as an inter-denominational community ministry. Guidelines are available at www.champion.org/ccs/chapel/speakers.htm along with the Center's statement of faith.
Please keep all content strictly Christian; no secular songs or secular covers.
3. Band / artists understand and confirm they must arrive at least two hours in advance of their designated playing time which will be determined after band ticket sales on July 12th. Band / artists must check in at the Center tent turn in extra tickets and pay for what they sold upon arrival. And, turn in their group ticket contract. Final instructions and directions for their stage and equipment set up will be given at that time. If band / artists want to visit the other areas of the concert venue, they should do this before the two-hour check in or after their performance. Band / artists are expected to be in the artist prep area in order to keep the event running on time. Band / artists arriving late will risk forfeiting a portion of or all of their playing time.
4. Band / artists confirm there is no band / artists remuneration for this event, with the exception of the group ticket sale proceed portions during the pre-sales designated time until midnight July 16, 2014. Band / artists may keep $5 from each ticket that they sell at the group sale price. One day ticket sale price is $15 and three day ticket price is $25 before June 30th (minimum sales for group sales is twenty-five tickets). After that date group tickets are $20 and $30 respectively.
5. Band / artists will return the signed Band / Artist Agreement document by May 15th. Please email that information ASAP, but no later than May 15th to Dan Hunt at reallifemusicx2@gmail.com with AOP Band / Artist Contract in the subject line.
6. Band / artists must regularly review the website www.alloutpraise.com to assure that their information represents them accurately.

7. Band / artists playing on Saturday are required to be responsible to sell or pay for a minimum of 25 tickets. Band / artists who do not fulfill this obligation by July 12th will be rescheduled to a Friday evening slot. Thursday and Friday night band / artists will receive booth space on the night that they play. However, band / artists who sell a minimum of 10 tickets may choose to have their booth space on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

By signing the following agreement, the Center is communicating to the artists that they can expect the following:

1. Band / artists will get complimentary tickets for each band member, as well as five extra tickets that they may distribute to helpers that they bring with them. These tickets are intended only for band / artist support not guests and are for the day their band / artist plays only. Stage passes for band members are good for all three days. Everyone, including band / artists, will need a ticket to enter the gates. Only guests with stage passes will be allowed in the artist area behind the stage. In order to receive these extra tickets, band / artists must confirm with the Center's Marketing Department with a total number by July 12th.
2. Band / artist will be given one free 10' X 10' booth spot to sell merchandise as per the "Exhibitor Booth Contract". If you want to utilize the booth space, please let us know as soon as possible. Booth space is issued partially based on timely responses. You will need to provide your own workers for your booth.
3. There will be a 'meet and greet' time for band / artists to sign autographs and meet fans at either their own booth or the Center booth. This availability is expected in order to facilitate networking opportunities between ministries and the attendees.
4. Band / artists will receive sound, technology, performance guidelines, times, and set length, and set up instructions from the audio engineering team in advance of the event. Band / artist will be allowed to have creative control at the sound booth, but all sound control will be mixed from the sound booth.
5. The Center will provide an accurate website and band information page at www.alloutpraise.com/bands. After your contract is received your name and link will be placed on the website. Please check to make sure it is correct and working.
6. Band / artists will have complimentary snacks, meals and drinks available for them before, during and after their performances.
7. The Center will provide crews to assist in equipment unloading, prep area set up, stage set up and tear down and loading. In order to manage the two stages (to keep everything on time), everyone will be expected to remain on a tight schedule to keep down time between performances. There will be a sound technician operating the equipment board, and there will be a stage manager and sound manager to assist with set up.
8. The Center will, in good faith, encourage the ministry of each of the band / artist.
